Preface

After 53 years racing pigeons, Les McCormick has decided to call it a day and sell his remaining seven pairs of stock birds. All stock were successfully breeding during last season but no guarantees can be given.

Les began racing pigeons in 1948 and enjoyed many successful years at all levels of the sport, from club racing to Section and Open Federation. He has won short, middle and long distance events and clocked a number of birds during the night to win as well.

To his credit Les has never sold nor purchased a pigeon in the many years that he has raced them, but he has given away many good pigeons that have proved to be very successful in other lofts and many very good flyers have given Les their top pigeons.

Over the past couple of years Les has found it increasingly difficult to handle the many tasks associated with training racing pigeons and has therefore reduced most of his stock birds by giving them to friends. The remaining seven pair are his favourites, which he has now decided to sell, and give the total proceeds from the sale to the Salvation Army Red Shield Appeal.

There will be no reserve on the birds and all must be sold. These birds would be of benefit to any loft.
