7. Business Arising from the Minutes

7.1 Convoy Guide 2025

The management committee has reviewed the recommendations from QRPF top Flyers C Porter, L Vanderlinde and ANRPB. The new Conveyor guide with some changes that will work with the new transporter and in the best interest of the pigeons. B Snyman will publish this on the QRPF web page for all to review.

7.2 QRPF first release

B Snyman provided feedback on how the new transporter is operating. The loading is very easy as you would know with using the new "light "crates. Frank & Sasa are going well learning the way of the new transporter. The release is getting better with some feedback from the videos. The conditions inside the transporter are absolutely amazing no matter what time you go in there it is very consist and pleasant. We had a few visitors from neighbouring federations and they were very impressed on the whole set up. The water system is working better every week with some tweaks to get it functioning correctly. In overall everything is running smoothly and it will only get better as we proceed through the season.

7.3 New QRPF Crates

B Snyman reported that some crates are being modified by clubs. The management committee has made it clear no modification are to be made to any part of the crate without the permission of the management committee. Clubs are requested to please take of the crates when handling and transporting.

8. General Business.

8.1 QRPF Ring Race /Breeders plate

The management committee has agreed to host the ring race & Breeders plate. B Snyman just outlined that the process will need to be made simpler. The race will be on the same day from estimate 600km on the West Direction 2026. Rings are for sale with the QRPF race secretary and further information will be provided about when the breeders plate entries will take place

8.2 Olympic 2032

W Reese & B Snyman attended a stakeholder engagement with the Local government regards to the Belmont Shooting Complex master plan for the 2032 Olympics. The purpose of the meeting was to engage all stakeholders and get a better understanding how each organisation utilises the Belmont Shooting complex. The master plan will consider the existing site users and site constraints. The QRPF & WMPC will receive consist updates on the master plan.

8.3 QRPF Membership

B Snyman wanted to raise the misconception about the timeframe the QRPF membership. The management committee has set the time of Membership from the last Saturday in October to the following year last Saturday in October all fees are payable at this time.
